Introduction with the Intertestamental Period

Here is a teaching on the Intertestamental Period (also called the "400 Silent Years") that outlines the key events, cultural shifts, and spiritual developments that shaped the world Jesus was born into. While called "silent," this era was full of dramatic transformation and laid the groundwork for the New Testament.

⌚ Teaching: "From Silence to Salvation — The Intertestamental Period and Its Impact on the Time of Jesus"

📜 Intertestamental Period Overview Chart

Old Testament	Intertestamental Period ("400 Silent Years")	New Testament
Malachi (430 BC)	No Prophets (400 years of silence)	Birth of Jesus (4–6 BC)
Persian Rule (509–331 BC)	Greek Rule (331–63 BC) Roman Rule (63 BC–New Testament era)	Rome still in power
Language: Hebrew	Language Shift: Greek (Koine)	Language: Greek & Aramaic
Temple Worship	Rise of Synagogues	Temple + Synagogues
Prophets	New Religious Sects: Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, Zealots	Jesus confronts these groups

🧭 Historical Timeline Highlights

Period	Key Events	Impact
Persian Rule (539–331 BC)	Jews return from exile, temple rebuilt (516 BC), no king	Foundation of Judaism as a religious identity without monarchy
Greek Rule (331–167 BC)	Alexander the Great conquers; Hellenism spreads	Greek language & culture influence religion, education, and lifestyle
Ptolemaic Rule (323–198 BC)	Egypt controls Judea peacefully	Septuagint (Greek OT) translated in Alexandria
Seleucid Rule (198–167 BC)	Antiochus IV Epiphanes persecutes Jews	Temple defiled, leads to rebellion
Maccabean Revolt (167–160 BC)	Jewish revolt led by Judas Maccabeus	Rededication of temple (Hanukkah), rise of Hasmonean rule
Hasmonean Dynasty (160–63 BC)	Independent Jewish rule, priests as kings	Increased corruption, sectarianism emerges
Roman Rule (63 BC onward)	Pompey conquers Jerusalem, Herod made king (37 BC)	Roman oppression fuels messianic hope

Political & Cultural Developments

1. Hellenism and Greek Culture

- Greek became the lingua franca (universal language)—the New Testament was written in Greek.
- Introduced philosophical thinking, gymnasiums, drama, and focus on human achievement.
- Tension: Some Jews embraced Greek ways (Hellenists), others resisted (Hasidim, later Pharisees).

Greek Influence (Hellenism)	Key Historical Figures
"Man is god" Culture of Entertainment, Pleasure, Individualism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • - Education & Knowledge: Aristotle, Socrates, Plato • - Health & Competition: Olympic Games (naked men) • - Individual happiness/pleasure as highest good 	Alexander the Great: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • -Mentored by Aristotle • -Military Conqueror • -Died young, alcoholic

Greco-Roman Society: City Life & Infrastructure

Greek "Polis" (Cities): Decapolis (10 Cities)

Jesus healed the demoniac and fed the 4,000 there.

City Features	Meaning/Context
1. Theater	Entertainment-based society
2. Arena/Colosseum/Hippodrome	Sports & Gladiator games
3. Gymnasium (gymnós = nude)	Obsession with physical health
4. Public Bath House	Hygiene and social gathering
5. Temple (human-like gods)	Man becomes god — Contrast : God becomes Man (Jesus)

2. The Septuagint (LXX)

- Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures around 250 BC.
- Allowed non-Hebrew speakers (diaspora Jews and later Gentiles) to access Scripture.
- Used often by New Testament writers when quoting OT.

3. The Maccabean Revolt

- A response to Antiochus IV's desecration of the temple (offering a pig to Zeus).
- Temple rededicated in 164 BC — celebrated as Hanukkah (John 10:22).
- Created a renewed zeal for Torah and temple purity.

4. Rise of Jewish Sects

Sect	Beliefs	Influence in Jesus' Time
Pharisees	Oral tradition, resurrection, legal purity	Popular with common people, often challenged by Jesus
Sadducees	Only Torah, no resurrection, priestly elite	Controlled temple, aligned with Rome
Essenes	Separated from corrupt temple, apocalyptic	Possibly authors of Dead Sea Scrolls
Zealots	Militant nationalists, anti-Rome	May include disciples like Simon the Zealot
Samaritans	Torah only, rival temple on Mt. Gerizim	Central to several NT encounters (John 4)

Pharisees

Why they emerged:

- After the Maccabean revolt (167–160 BC), the Hasmonean rulers (priest-kings) combined political power with priestly office, which many Jews saw as corruption of God's law.
- The Pharisees arose as a lay movement emphasizing that holiness wasn't just for priests in the Temple, but for all Israel in daily life.
- They developed the oral traditions ("fence around the Torah") to help people keep God's law in ordinary settings like homes and synagogues.
- Their emphasis: Faithfulness in exile conditions, even while under foreign rule (first Greeks, then Romans). Oversaw synagogues as teachers of the law. Blue collar people with day jobs. They could not be paid to teach the Scriptures.

👉 They emerged to preserve Jewish identity and piety among the people, beyond the Temple.

Sadducees

Why they emerged:

- Rooted in the priestly aristocracy (descendants of Zadok, high priest under Solomon).
- When the Hasmoneans took both kingship and high priesthood, the Sadducees aligned with them, becoming the elite guardians of the Temple system.
- They rejected Pharisaic "innovations" (oral traditions) and held tightly to the Written Torah only, partly to maintain their power and authority.
- They denied resurrection/angels because those teachings threatened their control of Temple-centered religion. Wealthy white collar people living in Jerusalem.
- Formed Sanhedrin including 70 Sadducees plus 1 High Priest. Functioned like a Supreme Court. Seat could be purchased from Rome.

👉 They emerged to protect the status quo of Temple power and priestly authority, aligning with ruling powers (including Rome).

Essenes

Why they emerged:

- Disillusioned with the Hasmonean priesthood, which they viewed as illegitimate and corrupt.
- Likely split from the Sadducees around the 2nd century BC, forming separatist communities in the wilderness (like Qumran, where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found).
- They believed they were the true Israel, awaiting God's judgment against corrupt priests and foreign rulers.
- With apocalyptic expectations, they practiced extreme purity, communal living, and dual messianic hope (a priestly messiah and a kingly messiah).
- 2 weird things: Didn't spit on their left side. Didn't use the restroom on the Sabbath.

👉 They emerged as a radical protest movement, rejecting both Pharisees' compromises and Sadducees' corruption, choosing withdrawal and purity. Picture the Amish today.

🔑 Summary (Why They Emerged)

- Pharisees: To extend holiness to everyday life and preserve faith under foreign rule.
- Sadducees: To maintain Temple control and priestly power, siding with elites.
- Essenes: To separate from corruption and await God's intervention through apocalyptic hope.

5. Rome's Rise to Power

- 63 BC: General Pompey enters Holy of Holies—shocking desecration.
- Herod the Great (37–4 BC): Roman-appointed king, rebuilt the temple magnificently but was paranoid and brutal (see MT 2). Roman taxation, soldiers, and client kingship created tension—Messianic hopes soared.

🔥 Religious and Spiritual Shifts

- Messianic Expectation Increased

- OT prophecies (esp. Daniel, Isaiah, Zechariah) were reinterpreted under Roman oppression.
- Some expected a political/military messiah, others a priestly or prophetic one.

- Synagogue System Developed

- With Jews scattered and temple access limited, local synagogues became centers for teaching, worship, and community.
- Prepared the way for Jesus and Paul to preach in synagogues across regions.

- Oral Law Expanded

- Pharisees developed the oral traditions to "build a fence around the law."
- Jesus often challenged these traditions, calling people back to the heart of the Law.

✚ How This Prepared the Way for Jesus

Development	How It Shaped the Time of Jesus
Greek Language	Allowed rapid spread of the Gospel in written and oral form
Roman Roads and Peace (Pax Romana)	Made travel for apostles and missionaries easier
Messianic Expectation	Primed people to listen for a deliverer
Religious Sects	Provided tension and context for Jesus' teachings
Synagogues	Strategic preaching points across the Roman world
Temple Focus	Jesus' claim to be the true Temple took on major significance

✚ Theological Fulfillment

"But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, so that He might redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption as sons."

— Galatians 4:4–5 (NASB)

NOTE: The baptism sections recorded in John actually take place AFTER the temptation of Jesus. John the Baptist is testifying to the people and religious leaders about Jesus when He returns after 40 days to the Jordan River. The author of this book thought it best to include it next to the synoptic gospels since it has similar information. John gives us the first week of ministry of Jesus after his 40 day temptation.

Matthew 3:1-12, Mark 1:2-8, Luke 3:1-18, John 1:19-28 John the Baptist Prepares the Way

How did the royal official respond to Jesus' words? _____

What news did the official receive on his way home? _____

At what time did the healing take place? _____

How did the official and his household respond to the healing? _____

We are going to jump pages a bit. Turn to page 52 in the book. You will see the accounts of Jesus in Nazareth. Many scholars believe Jesus visited twice. The account in Luke happened at this point in our study and the accounts in Matthew and Mark happened later. This makes sense to me since currently Matthew and John make a reference to Nazareth and Luke typically writes in chronological order. For now, let's look at the Luke account on page 52.

LK 4:16-30 Jesus is Rejected in His Hometown

What scroll was handed to Jesus? _____

What verses did He read? _____

How does He interpret it in verse 21? _____

What day of the week is it? _____

What did the disciples do that the Pharisees considered work? _____

What OT illustration did Jesus give? _____

Matthew repeats Hosea 6:6 again. Where did he say that last time? _____

Who did Jesus say is Lord of the Sabbath? _____

MT 12:9-14, MK 3:1-6, LK 6:6-11 Jesus Heals a Man with Paralyzed Hand

What day of the week is it again? _____

Which hand was shriveled? _____

What analogy from Jesus does Matthew share with us? _____

According to Mark, how did Jesus feel? _____

Who was plotting to kill Jesus? _____

MK 3:13-19, LK 6:12-16 Jesus Selects the Twelve Disciples

What did Jesus do before choosing the 12 disciples/apostles? _____

How many of the names have we seen already with Jesus? _____

Which brothers got a nickname? _____

What speaks to you the most about the beginning of Jesus' ministry? _____

17 The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him, and unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written: 18 The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.
